PERSONS TALKED ABOUT

Mrs. Edward C. Dodd, the "union queen" of Texas, operates a 400-acre farm and is credited with having netted $32,000 from her onion crop in a single year.

John Hart and daughter of Stroud, Ohio, together with a top buggy in which they were driving, were blown 500 yards into a field by a cyclone, the young lady receiving serious injuries.

The youngest railroad president in the world is the proud distinction of Daniel A. Sortwell, a young broker's clerk of Boston. Only 35 years old and less than two years out of college, Sortwell at the last meeting of the Barre Railroad company stockholders was elected president of the road.

Mrs. Sarah Inman of Greeley, Col., known as "the little old lady with the cane," has a United States flag of silk, on which she has placed the autographs of a large number of veterans of the civil and Spanish wars. On her list of nearly 1,000 names she has the signatures of Generals Miles, Thomas and Howard.

Mrs. Otto Killian of New York, a daughter of Bayard Taylor, has just sailed for England as representative from the New York state association of women suffragists to the general meeting of the English Anti-Suffrage association. Mrs. A. J. George, it is said, will follow her early in June as representative of the Massachusetts branch of the anti.

Archbishop Riordan of San Francisco has ordered the removal of the body of the late Bishop of the diocese from its present resting place in the cathedral to the new cathedral at Berkeley. He was forced into this move by the state university at Berkeley. So important does he consider it to be to conserve the church's interests in the secular environment.

Why Men Wear Trousers.
No living man of this age ever deliberately chose to "adopt trousers." He was forced into them and all other eccentricities of dress by woman. In the very earliest sartorial experience of every man he is swathed in a queer bundle of incontinent bandages by a woman. Later she puts him into cute little dresses, so that the neighbors will not tell him from his little sister. Still later she cuts off his curls and puts him into knickerbockers, and he puts on "long pants" when she gives him a pair of trousers.

Where Did He Get It?

"Big Tim" Sullivan, the New York boss, is spending money like water in Europe. America, of course, thrills with patriotic pride.—Washington Post.

T. B. Walker of Minneapolis, who is said to be the largest owner of standing timber in the United States, will probably be a candidate for the United States senate against Senator Moses E. Clapp, whose term will expire in 1911. It is also said that Frank B. Kellogg of St. Paul, special government prosecutor, will be a candidate.
